The Chelsea is an equal opportunity employer. I understand that no question being asked as part of my consideration for employment is intended to be unlawful. I understand that neither the completion of the application nor any other part of my consideration for employment establishes any obligation by The Chelsea to hire me. I understand that I must receive satisfactory references from previous employers before an offer of employment can be made; incomplete or unsigned applications will not be considered. If I am hired, I understand that either The Chelsea or I can terminate my employment at any time.

All the information I have given to the employer in considering me for employment is correct. No other information has been concealed. I authorize the investigation of all matters concerning my consideration for employment. I waive any right to prior written notice and authorize my former employers references, physicians, and acquaintances to give any such information they may have regarding me. I indemnify The Chelsea, as well as any parties from whom information is obtained, from any liability whatsoever resulting from the investigation and release of this information. If any information I have given to The Chelsea is untrue or if I have concealed any information, I understand that this may result in the denial of employment or termination.
